

West Virginia Patriots for Peace in collaboration with
The Center on Conscience and War

Announces TWO GREAT EVENTS!!

Military Service and Our Youth:
Rights and Risks
-A Public Forum-

Friday, June 3rd at 7:00pm
St. John's Episcopal Church
Charleston, WV

-FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC-

Learn about conscientious objecting, military recruiting, GI Rights, and the possible draft with Bill Galvin, the Counseling Coordinator from The Center on Conscience and War in Washington D.C.

-----and-----

Military Service and Our Youth:
Rights and Risks
-A Seminar on Military Recruitment-

Saturday, June 4th
9:30am - 4:30pm
St. John's Episcopal Church
Charleston, WV

-Approved for LPC CEU's and Social Worker CEU's by the Children's Home Society
-Lunch and material provided at no cost
-Registration required

This program is designed for pastors, youth counselors, career counselors and others who work with young adults contemplating military service.

For more information, contact:
West Virginia Patriots for Peace
P.O. Box 3482 ♦ Charleston, WV 25334 patriots.news@verizon.net ♦ 304.988.1717 wvpatriotsforpeace.org

Events cosponsored by:

American Friends Service Committee
Military Families Speak Out
National Lawyers Guild: WV Chapter
Ohio Valley Environmental Coalition

Pax Christi
Veterans for Peace
West Virginia Citizen Action Group
West Virginia Interfaith Center on Public Policy

